

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2577 - HB 2530

February 17, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Prevents union recognition elections from occurring in successive years.

Present law provides that one or more professional employee's organizations may submit to the local board of education, between October 1 and November 1 of any year, a request for recognition, as long as certain conditions are met. In turn, the board of education and the requesting organization are to appoint individuals to serve on a special election committee to conduct an election. In the event one or more organizations submit a request, a special secret ballot election must be conducted among the eligible professional employees to determine which organization, if any, will represent such employees.
